

An organic herbal farm in the northeastern Thailand (Nakorn Ratchasima province)

Characteristic of projects and activities:

This project aims to gathering the local community cooperating and support the villages and community to join the project as an organic garden owner, training target group the knowledge of herbs and organic farm production by herbal experts. Working very closely with villagers and community 's leaders and members of the project. An Organic Herb Bank (OHB) will be established for being the centre of all member, OHB will responsible for herb trading and distribution, contacting with business companies for collecting orders and distribution.

Project's areas: The pilot areas are:

- 1) Wang nam khaew district, and
- 2) Dong ma fai sub district, Soong nern district, Nakorn ratchasima province

Duration: 2-5 years (2013-2018)

Budget (Baht): 250,000 -1,500,000 baht/ years

Note for Supporters and partners:

The project aims to support the villagers, and community to develop their career and help them in terms of herbal garden activities knowledge training and marketing activities. It is the community development project that pay the channel of cooperation and collaboration not only the farmers but also business sectors and government agents.

